

Institute of World Economy
International Economy and Business MSc

Thesis topics 2018-19

Sejla Almadi

- France: its political, economic and social systems
- Research design and methods: mixed methods, triangulation
- Human Resource Management/ Marketing Strategy/ Business Ethics at international corporations
- Organisational Behaviour: self-fulfilling prophecies, Pygmalion effect, Galatea effect
- European Investment Bank: investment projects, evaluation, impact analysis, monitoring

Istvan Benczes

- Economic governance in the EU
- Fiscal policy in the EU
- Theories of economic integration
- Introducing the euro in Hungary

Viktoria Endrodi-Kovacs

- The Western Balkans, economy of the Western Balkan countries
- Integration maturity
- Foreign Direct Investments - transnational companies, investments, investments decisions
- Global Value Chains, Embeddedness of V4 countries into Global Value Chains

Peter Gal

- Strategies of transnational corporations
- Foreign direct investments
- The micro and macro economic consequences of globalisation (national and international economic policies, development policies, global value chains)
- Impacts of the new technological era in the world economy (Theoretical, economic policy and corporate related consequences. Impacts in different countries and regions.)

Institute of World Economy

International Economy and Business MSc

Istvan Kollai

- Socio-economical processes in Central-Europe (economic geography)
- Globalisation. from a Central-European perspective
- Process of urbanisation in Central-Europe
- Economics of heritage (heritage industry, commodification of the past)
- Product branding and brand strategies (place-branding, geo-branding)
- Economics of multilingualism (economics of language)

Istvan Magas

- Global Finance and Regulation
- World Economic Crisis: Interpretations and Crisis Management
- Conditions of adopting the euro in Hungary
- BEXIT and its consequences in Europe
- Trade war

Gabor Miklos

- Effects of economic crises in the Central-European Region
- Integration maturity of the new EU-countries
- Advantages and disadvantages in the Central-European economies (macroeconomic analysis)
- Examination of autonomy in economical and political approach
- Political and economical benefits of minorities
- Challenges of the European labour market
- Labour shortages in Hungary and Central-Europe
- Situation of the Hungarian and Central-European construction industry

Sandor Gyula Nagy

- Economic and Political issues of Latin American countries and Spain
- International and Hungarian practice of using the EU Structural Funds
- Energy policy of the EU

Tibor Palankai

- Theory of regional and global integration
- European integration policies
- Success rate of the European integration
- Integration maturity

Institute of World Economy

International Economy and Business MSc

Judit Ricz

- Developmental States
- Latin America

Mihaly Simai

- Global Economic Governance and National Economy Policies
The new relations between output and trade in the World Economy
The national and international regulations of transnational corporations: goals and outcomes
The commodity markets in the international system
Agriculture or manufacturing or services in the system of international cooperation.
- Global challenges and the multilateral cooperation regimes
The new global program of Sustainable Development (2015) and the national economies alternatively: developed world, developing countries or Hungary or in any of the functional areas of the the SDGs or national economy policies
- Risk factors in the world economy, risk management on corporate, state and global levels

Krisztina Szabo

- Development Economics;
- Foreign Aid;
- Political Economy of Development Cooperation;
- Sustainable Development,
- Emerging Security Challenges

Balazs Szent-Ivanyi (maximum 2 students, he's abroad - consultation only via Skype and email)

- International development and aid, development economics

Andras Tetenyi

- International Development Assistance
- Sustainable Development Goals
- Elements of Growth and Sustainability
- The Effects of International Migration

Institute of World Economy

International Economy and Business MSc

Gabor Vigvari

- Current issues in international trade
- Globalization, institutions, nation state
- The political economy of international cooperation
- Economic policy of the EU

Judit Burucs

- The future of the LIBOR and the Effects on the Banking Industry
- The Role of International Rating Agencies
- The Importance of the Country and Counterparty Creditrisk
- Employing Fund Transfer Pricing in the International Active Banks
- Implementation of Basel III and its Effects
- Risk Management in the International Active Banks
- International Comparison of Mortgage Lendings

Julia Mező Urbánné

- Youth Unemployment in the European Union
- Youth Unemployment in Developing Countries
- Generation-Specific Impacts of Labour-Market Flexibility